Poultry-statewide: light to minor damage, several companies reporting metal roofing damage, one older house destroyed in Cullman Co.; 200-300 poultry houses tin damage; 8-10 houses damaged severe enough to have to relocate chickens into other houses; possibly 2-3 houses damaged severe enough that may not be repairable; less than 10,000 chickens lost, mostly due to generator failure at a farm in Walker Co.
Current reports for livestock damage are sparse due to downed communications but appear to be mainly fence damage due to downed trees along AL/MS border, we have contacted AL Cattlemen's Assoc. who is coordinating a fencepost & wire resource to help supply local needs
We have communicated w/several vet clinics in Mobile & Baldwin Co.; Baldwin Co. reports light damage & are back on line with power; Mobile Co. reporting light structural damage but no electricity. Vets are still able to provide emergency care & can be contacted through their regular office numbers (some available, some are not). We have discussed the possibility of utilizing a VMAT team w/a VMAT team leader, at this time, they have capacity to assist if/when we need. Local vet resources are adequate at this time.
The Department has a list of 15 facilities across the state that will house animals evacuated because of the hurricane. The list, along with contact information and type of animal is posted on the Department website as well as on the EM2000. Some of these facilities will house small animals such as dogs and cats; however, most only house horses. The total number of animals that can be accommodated is over 2000. Late this morning it was reported that just under 100 horses were being sheltered.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

4:000 P.M. EDT

COLONIAL PIPELINE RESTARTS SYSTEM

ALPHARETTA, GA (August 31, 2005) – Colonial Pipeline today announced that it is safely restarting its pipeline. The initial restart of Colonial's Main lines 1 and 2 is scheduled to begin within the next several hours.

Initial service restoration will provide between 25% and 35% of Colonial's normal operating capacity. Both gasoline and distillate service is included in this system restart. Colonial's first priority through all of these restart activities is the protection of public safety and the environment.

Following this baseline restoration of partial service, Colonial will continue with the previously announced installation of distributed generation equipment along its system in Louisiana and Mississippi to provide electric power. This power will allow Colonial to gradually increase the rate of throughput on the system throughout the weekend.

Colonial anticipates that the maximum percentage of normal capacity that these interim measures will provide is between 50% and 60%. Colonial continues to work closely with local electrical utilities as they begin to restore power along the pipeline.

Colonial Pipeline, headquartered in Alpharetta, Ga., delivers a daily average of 100 million gallons of gasoline, home heating oil, aviation fuel and other refined petroleum products to communities and businesses throughout South and the Eastern United States. Colonial consists of more than 5,500 miles of pipeline, originating at Houston, Texas, and terminating at the New York harbor.
